

Laundering Syria

The 2009 Nobel Peace Prize was awarded to U.S. President Barack Hussein Obama for "his extraordinary efforts to strengthen international diplomacy and cooperation between peoples." Obama's [new climate] in international relations is a complete failure, unless you're on the side of the terrorists; specifically the Muslim Brotherhood. Like a participation trophy given to children, Obama received the Award for giving a good speech about wars past, not for actually doing anything.

Just as the Brotherhood took over Egypt with Obama's support to drive out Mubarak, Obama provided [aggressive military action] to replace Kadafi with Libya's first elected prime minister, Mustafa Abu-shagur who attempted to stock the government with Brotherhood appointees. Fortunately, the Libyan parliament blocked the take over and removed Mustafa from office, as is now happening in Egypt. The Brotherhood is gaining ground in Mexico and on the verge of taking over Brazil. Detroit is now the capital of the Brotherhood in the States, with other Michigan towns excluding non-Muslims from city hall meetings.

On Ambassadors Stevens assignment anniversary, Obama quietly admits to supporting the Syrian rebels with military aide as claimed by Russia all along and evidenced by the Turkey-Syria border skirmish. How safe do you feel right now knowing Al-Qaeda scored rockets from the power vacuum created by Obama's bombing of Libya, and through another botched gun running program? Al-Qaeda wants to eliminate Israel and the U.S.. They see passenger planes as vulnerable targets, and can now park guided rocket launchers outside airports throughout the U.S. for a massive strike.
